

Alejandra A. Brady, Marketing and Public Relations Chair for the Dallas/Fort Worth Executive Leadership Council at Autism Speaks lives in Midlothian, TX with her two young children and husband. Alejandra is Senior Director, Head of Corporate Communications, Crisis, social media, Field Marketing and D&I at CEC Entertainment, the parent company of Chuck E. Cheese and Peter Piper Pizza, where she oversees strategic communications for nearly 600 family entertainment centers across 45 states and 17 international markets. Alejandra joined the ELC to support the Autism community after growing the Sensory Sensitive Sunday's program at Chuck E. Cheese where she has seen the impact of community, access to recourses and much needed additional support for the Autism Community. Alejandra wants to help create more opportunities for the Autism community like employment and helping them reach their fullest potential.
