

My Autism Guide

Now it's easier than ever to access personalized, relevant information and content. This individualized online destination is designed for people with autism, caregivers, service providers and all members of the autism community.

Accessing the right news and resources at the right time is simple, and it's customized for any age, level of support needed or location.

The more you use My Autism Guide, the more personalized the content will be, as the search engine fine tunes its recommendations to deliver news, resources and information right when you need it.

Plus, you'll be among the first to know as new Autism Speaks resources and tools become available.

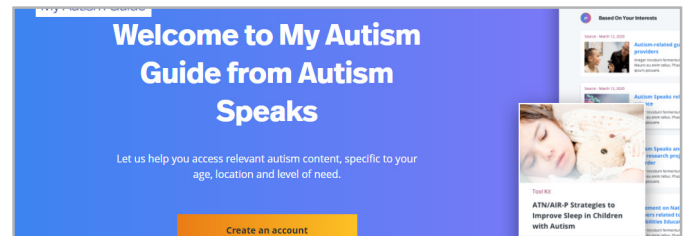

With My Autism Guide as an always-available resource, we hope that you or your loved one with autism will have even more opportunities to reach your full potential.

SIGN UP TODAY!

Here's how it works:

1. Register at autismspeaks.org/guideoutreach

2. Customize your profile to let us know what types of content will be most relevant to you

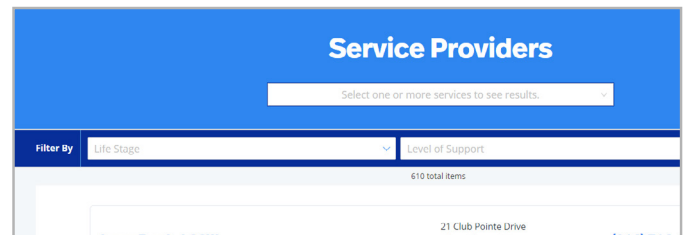

Phone Zip Code*

Relationship to autism*

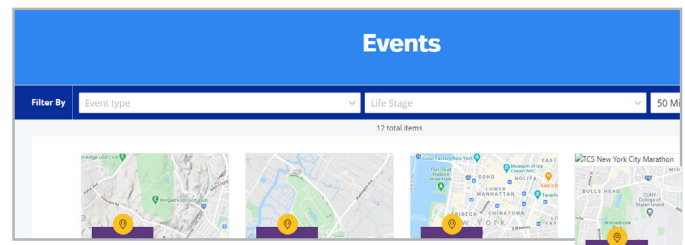

I am autistic Parent and/or guardian

Sibling, other family member, friend or loved one Educator

3. Use the extensive database to search for service providers in your area

4. Find and save virtual events or events in your local community

We're here to help.

(888) AUTISM2 | en español (888) 772-9050 | help@autismspeaks.org